

CONTEMPO ALLELUIA

CHOIR and LEVEL

Children, Youth, Adult

Developing/Skilled/Advanced

Contempo Alleluia can be described as a sacred and secular concurrent circlet. Both conductor and choir will delve into this contemporary round, while focusing on improvisational experimentation. The word 'Alleluia' is a liturgical and vibrant word for 'Hallelujah'...a song of praise. As our society becomes increasingly secular, there are several words used as alternates to 'Alleluia' and 'Hallelujah.' In this composition, William has incorporated both 'Alleluia' and 'Hallelujah,' but partnered them with: Gee, Gee Whiz, Glory, Gosh, Ha, Hey, Hooray, Hotdog, Hurrah, Huzzah, Whee, Wohoo, Wow, Yahoo, Yippie, and Zowie.

Improvisational Choral style.
