

SET ME AS A SEAL
from SONG OF SOLOMON

CHOIR and LEVEL

Children/Youth/Adult

Skilled/Advanced

This S(divisi)A with Piano work is reflective yet expressive. In an inclusive society, one wants to be bound not to just a part of their partner, but to all they are. This is because of the strength of love and jealousy. Here, jealousy is a positive virtue. We should be jealous for those relationships in which we are to be joined only to one other. God has ordained these relationships, and He calls us to guard and protect them. With respect to human relationships, the love that we have for our spouses is an exclusive kind of love.

*Set me as a seal upon your heart,
as a seal upon your arm,
for love is strong as death.*

*Many waters cannot quench love;
neither can the floods drown it.*

*Set me as a seal upon your heart,
as a seal upon your arm,
For love is strong as death.*
