I am Not Yours is a setting of a Sara Teasdale (1884-1933) poem. This beautiful text sees the speaker seeking out a relationship which allows her to become lost in love, unlike her current relationship. She asks herself “Can my lover provide me with a deep love...or do I want more?” She wants to feel consumed, but also free. This piece is layered with lush harmonies and dissonances all working together to convey this meaningful message.

Traditional Choral style.
